ANNOUNCEMENTS

DAVIS THEATRE.

Nederfeld's Monkeys and a Big Vitagraph Feature for Next Week.

The feature for Monday and Tuesday is "The Fun of the Road," a five-part Vitagraph feature, with scenes in the home life of a happy couple, John King and Helen, his wife. The action takes a quick step forward when an old school chum of Mrs. King's, Marcia Wilbur, comes to live with them. Marcia is a born coquette and flirts with every male person with whom she comes in contact. John King becomes interested in her, and with automobile rides and visits to the open, while his wife is at home with her. King's greatest changes to admiration, then infatuation. One night while John and Marcia are alone, she gives him a kiss, which starts out in his automobile and at a turn in the road, while going at high speed, his motor car is overturned. King, his conscience now fully awakened to the enormity of his wrong doing, turns to his wife and tells her of the accident. Marcia is operated upon and when reason returns accidentally overturns the lamp and sets fire to the room. She and her husband escape the flames, but are overcome. King, seeing the fire from the lawn, dashes into the house and rescues Helen, leaving Marcia to be carried out by an old sweetheart, Dr. Bright.

The vaudeville attraction is Nederfeld's Monkeys, one of the best of the animal acts in vaudeville. A miniature race track is built on the stage and the monkeys give an exhibition of motorcycling, racing, and other feats. Your hair stand on end and keep the town talking for a week. Other Mutual Movies and comedies complete the show.

COLONIAL THEATRE.

Comus Famous Comedy Players in Superb Musical Vaudeville Offering.

Notwithstanding the inclemency of the weather, and the extremely dangerous walking conditions, the Musical Comedy theatre last evening an audience of splendid proportions. A strong political story entitled "The Mayor and the Boss" is enacted with the utmost fidelity to detail and is a remarkable drama to be attempted by a cast that includes but six people. The Artist's Dream is a fascinating drama in which there figures a stolen painting. Miss Moran, whose work here in these engagements has been one of the charms of the various changes, appears as Cleopatra, singing and dancing. This is a spectacular little sketch and is highly successful. Miss Kathryn Deem sings a concert song of highly difficult construction, and her hearers by it. Tom Whalen and Henry Curry appear in a little act which introduces some clever bits of comedy work and up-to-date jokes. It is in the political sketch that Mr. Curry is seen at his most serious side, playing the hardened district boss, and here Miss Moran is called upon to do strong acting also. Miss Minna Graham, the rollicking little miss of the cast, sings some dapper songs. Joseph Murray sings a song of his own composition, a song with a nation-wide reputation. Some Kid, This is the last performance of the Comus Comedy company at Colonial this week. There will be fine motion pictures today also.

AT THE AUDITORIUM.

The Biggest Show in Town Today.

The usual three shows will be given here today at 2:30, 7 and 9:45 o'clock, and all children under 15 years of age will be admitted for five cents at the matinee performance. Jim Dorsey and his Irish Tabloid Players will present the Irish comedy drama "The Fawcett Farewell" with a cast of 15 people, mostly girls. The show runs nearly an hour and is the first real tabloid show that has been in Norwich this season. Pauline Frederick, one of the foremost emotional artists of the American stage, who achieved a great personal triumph in her first picture play, "The Fawcett Farewell," in the Famous Players' Film company's superb photoplay, "The Eternal City," returns to the screen in another photoplay, the dramatic photo-production of "Sold," the great drama of woman's devotion, adapted from the Russian of George Erastov. This stirring five-part photoplay will make an indelible impression on the minds of all who witness it. For Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday of next week, a fine three act vaudeville show has been booked and will include the Three Harmony Girls in a dainty comedy sketch, Frank Ward, who does a very clever dance specialty, and Dines and Marshall in a neat singing and talking act. The Farmington feature will be "Blanche Sweet in Secret Orchard," a film version of the famous book and play by Agnes and Edgerton Castle. Other pictures will also be shown.

USQUEPAUGH

Many Attend Auction at the Home of the Late A. W. Kenyon.

The auction held at the residence of the late A. W. Kenyon Wednesday was well attended. Things were sold rapidly and brought high prices as a whole. There were several from Providence. J. C. Cahoon of Wakefield was a visitor in our village Sunday afternoon. Richard Bristow and family of West Kingston spent Sunday with Dr. Kenyon and family. George Niles and family of Wyoming were callers here, Sunday evening. Miss Martha Palmer was at Hope Valley Monday. Bradford Sutton, who has been working for Rev. C. H. Palmer, has left his employ. John Michael of R. I. S. C., spent a day recently at his home here. Mrs. C. C. Kenyon is entertaining her cousin, Miss Perkins, of Providence.

Electrication of all railroad lines within the metropolitan area of Boston, Massachusetts, and the construction of a subway to connect the north with the south terminal, were advocated at a hearing held October 15 by the Terminal Commission now considering improvements in railroad freight and passenger handling in section.

Lee & Osgood Guarantee to Return the Money if Mi-o-na Does Not Relieve You.

It's a pleasure to sell a medicine when you know it will do the job. And tell us how much good it has done. We have sold Lee & Osgood's popular "Mi-o-na" remedy for indigestion. It is why we like to sell and recommend this medicine. The "Mi-o-na" remedy has created so much talk and so large a demand for it that we have had to create a new factory to keep up with the demand. Our clerks have been busy selling this medicine ever since it was first introduced. It is so good that it has made us so much faith in this article that we are going to guarantee it in the future, and will return the money if any purchaser of "Mi-o-na" whom it does not relieve. You can see that our customers have found so many good words in its favor that we do not expect to have many returns. "Anyone who has dyspepsia, indigestion, and does not digest well, and who has to take thought as to what he can eat, and when, can leave 50 cents deposited with our store and take home a box of "Mi-o-na" and if it does not relieve his digestion and help his stomach, he can return the money. We don't know but what we would be willing to pay him interest."
